- Completion of an annual funding plan which serves as the strategic direction and vision of the Regional Partnership Council;
- Management and oversight of the implementation of the funding plan;
- Understanding the importance of expanding access to high-quality early childhood development and health resources in the region and assuming a leadership role in addressing the region's needs;

Coordination and collaboration with various early childhood development and health organizations, agencies and community partners including working with other Regional Directors and Regional Partnership Councils;

- Leading/facilitating collaboration efforts, both within the region and cross-regionally, including the identification of service gaps, development of strategies to address the gaps and fostering relationships with community partners that contribute to the development of an early childhood system;
- Increasing awareness of the importance of early childhood development, education and health;
- Building and maintaining strong working relationships with the Regional Partnership Council members, community organizations and agencies;
- Acting as the chief spokesperson for the Regional Partnership Council; and
- Staffing all Regional Council meetings and committees as determined by the Regional Partnership Council.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in early education, social work, education, health or other related field preferred. A minimum of a bachelor's degree in early education, social work, education, health or other related field combined with practical, relevant experience.
- Demonstrate a background of progressively responsible managerial or leadership positions in public, private or non-profit organizations, preferably with such experience in the area of providing early childhood development and/or health services to children and families;
- Possess a thorough knowledge of early childhood education, development and health issues, with knowledge of the particular issues facing Arizona. Demonstrate the ability to develop successful strategies to address those issues;
- Exhibit a strong record of leadership in early childhood education, development, literacy and/or health programs;
- Possess a demonstrated ability to develop and implement strategic long-range plans that promote program goals such as increasing early childhood development opportunities; increasing access to preventive health programs and health screenings; and providing training and education to support early childhood development providers;
- Possess a collegial leadership style and an ability to work effectively with staff; parents; community leaders; tribal leaders; local governments; public and private entities and faith-based groups to improve the quality of and access to early childhood development and health programs in the region;
- Exhibit highly-developed interpersonal and communication skills, and the ability to effectively articulate the goals, strategic direction and programs of the Regional Partnership Council;
- Show a commitment to uphold high ethical standards and promote transparency and sound business practices;

- Demonstrate the ability to ensure public accountability as well as measure and improve outcomes appropriate for program goals;
- Demonstrate knowledge, skill and success in generating financial support from both the public and private sectors;
- Have experience and competence in working effectively with a citizen governing board and volunteers to advance the strategic vision;
- Familiarity with the Pima North Region;
- Strong communication skills including the ability to write and speak clearly, succinctly, and in a manner that appeals to a wide audience;
- Detail oriented with the ability to meet competing deadlines;
- Creative and solution driven;
- Cooperative in working relationships;
- Comfortable working with minimal supervision and maintaining multiple responsibilities; and
- Reliable, regular and punctual attendance at work during core business hours.
- Ability to travel throughout the Pima North Region, as well as the Southeast Regional Area (Pima and Santa Cruz Counties) and to Maricopa County for statewide meetings.
